

Voluntary Self-Exclusion Process In Connecticut

Voluntary self-exclusion can be a beneficial and empowering tool for those who feel they may be developing or have a problem with their gambling. By creating a barrier, it allows those who want to decrease or stop their activity, reduce the harms associated with gambling.

1

When You Voluntary Self-Exclude...

Those who enroll in self-exclusion are prohibited from collecting from a licensee or operator:

- any winnings
- recovering any losses
- accepting complimentary gifts or services
- any other thing of value

2

Enroll Online With the State

To place yourself on the Connecticut Gaming Self-Exclusion List visit the Department of Consumer Protection's website at:

<https://ccpg.link/CTStateVSE>

3

Download the Forms From the Tribal Casinos

To place yourself on the Mohegan Sun and Foxwood Self-Exclusion Lists download and complete the form available at:

<https://ccpg.link/MoheganVSE>

<https://ccpg.link/FoxwoodsVSE>

4

Determine How Long the VSE Will

VSE options are irreversible after enacted so consider the options carefully.

- CT offers terms of 1 & 5 years or permanently.
- Mohegan Sun offers terms of 1 & 5 years.
- Foxwoods offers terms of 5 years or permanently.

5

When the VSE Term Ends

Once you've reached the end of your selected term, you can choose to renew your VSE or end it. If you have selected a term other than permanent, you will remain on the self-exclusion lists until you remove yourself.

6

We're Here to Help

SCAN ME

For more information or resources for those impacted by gambling related problems, call our 24/7 Helpline at 1-888-789-7777 or scan the QR code to access www.ccp.org